About Isaiah 117 House

Isaiah 117 House is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization that provides physical and emotional support in a safe and loving home for children awaiting foster care placement. Currently, when a child is removed in a county without an Isaiah 117 House, the child must wait in the child welfare services office. The child is often dirty, hungry, tired, scared, and unable to bring any personal possessions. Isaiah 117 House allows for that same child to never go to an office, but rather a home with loving volunteers to care for them.

Isaiah 117 House provides for that child’s needs, whatever they may be, in these critical moments between removal and placement. Isaiah 117 House has locations in Tennessee, Indiana, Virginia, Georgia, Texas and Florida. To learn more about Isaiah 117 House, visit www.isaiah117house.com.

2022-2023 Deacon Election

A list of active men twenty-one years and older—along with qualifications and responsibilities of a deacon—is on the credenza in the vestibule for you to prayerfully choose up to five men who you would like to nominate to serve on the active deacon board for 2022-2023.

RETURN YOUR NOMINATION FORM NEXT SUNDAY, JUNE 26

When you give to Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, you are providing Christian residential care for men and women who will likely never be able to live independently. Because of your gifts, TBAH has never turned any qualifying individual away due to financial reasons.

“Truths” For your Dinner Table

If God is good, why is there evil?

Since the Creator is wholly Good, evil should not be thought of as a created thing, but as a deviation or corruption of the proper order of creation. In God's good and sovereign plan, sin is permitted for His glory to be shown in redemption. Though mysterious, this is certain.
